

Final Profession 2023

29 July 2023 - Six Sisters, Arogya Matha Gudipudi, Jyoshna Bathula, Kavya Raikanti, Kavitha Konapuram, Nutan Topno and Sushma Madhavaram pronounced their final Yes to the Divine Master who has called them to this religious life. Most Rev. Bishop Udumala Bala officiated the Holy Eucharist along with concelebrants. This unique surrendering of oneself was in the presence of JMJ Sisters, Parents, brothers, Sisters and relatives. It was a momentous occasion in the Province of Hyderabad as these Sisters joyfully relinquish final Profession in their life journey.

Sr. Bridgit Govindu the TPS Mistress expressed words of welcome to every one present for this blissful event. At the entrance of the Holy Eucharist the Six Sisters along with their parents, priests and Bishop marched towards the altar with the lighted Lamps symbolizing their life and commitment as the choir chanted “VENI CREATORE” for out pouring of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop in his homily emphasized on “Call to Love – Sent to Serve”. Reminding the Sisters to be faithful to the call that God has given among many to serve the humanity and bring the values of Christ to everyone while living ascetic life of a religious keeping to the Vows till the end of their life.

Sisters designated for final commitment were examined by the Ecclesial authority and Congregation representative Rev. Sr. Mukta Xess, the Provincial of the Province, followed by the Litany of All Saints as they prostrated themselves in total surrender while the Congregation interceded to be faithful in their commitment to God after which they have willingly, solemnly pronounced their vows and accepted by Sr. Mukta Xess.

We thank God for the gift of these six Sisters to the Church and to our Congregation of Jesus Mary Joseph. As we congratulate for their courageous decision in their life, we pray and support them in their religious life. May the theme: “Call to Love and Send to serve” – remain ever fresh in their minds and articulate in their deeds. May our Patrons – Jesus Mary Joseph and the Founder Rev. Fr. Mathias Wolff S.J. – grant them courage and strength to continue this call day in and day out while bearing witness to the Kingdom values.

Congratulations
Dear Sisters
